The first day of August in Imst will be remembered by two things: (for some of us) the first hike in the Alps + bonding with other team members. Our hiking trip marked the last day of the training, and we feel energized and ready to welcome the participants and all our guests at the Opening Ceremony today at 7pm in Imst, Pfarrgasse 10. We are delighted and thankful to many partners and members of the Imst community who joined us for the Abschlusspräsentation last night. The interactive theatre performance, facilitated by Armin Staffler, brought the audience and the participants of "Acting for Peace" together in a dialogue on repression, tradition, migration, abandonment and difference in opinion.
